class prophecy

Things being extremely dull on Jupiter yesterday, I decided to find out what my former classmates were doing. After turning my Magnascope first this way and that, I managed to locate Earth. These were the scenes that I witnessed.

Dick Larson, head coach at K. State, was running his suffering basketball team through a series of strenuous exercises. Hearing a violent explosion on the campus I decided to investigate, and who should I find but Dwight Heath, professor of advanced atomic energy, emerging from the remains of the Science Building. It seems one of his experiments backfired. Leaving him to his troubles, I looked further and after two or three dizzying glances, discovered none other than the speed demon, Gary Costin, burning up the race track in his new jet racer. Gary is president of the "Daredevil Drivers" racing club.

On the sound stage of M. G. M. in Hollywood, I discovered the famous team of "Burns and Adams" making a stupendous new picture. In the White House, I found none other than Eddie Morrow, the newly appointed secretary to the President. In his New York studio, Charles Gauldin, nationally famous artist, was to be seen painting a beautiful picture of--of-- (your guess is as good as mine. Among the bright lights of Broadway, the name of Reitha Smith outshines the rest. Reitha is known as the most sensational dancer of the century. What was that streak of light? A meteor!! A comet! No! It's just that Rocket Express again. Gene Perry, having advanced from the idea of bus lines, is now operating an Interplanetary rocket line. Buddy Douglas, famous jet ace, is one of Gene's most competent pilots.

J. W. Day, after spending his high school days slaving away in a drugstore, has put his knowledge to practical use and now owns a chain of drugstores on Earth and several other planets. Wanda Wildschuetz, coach of the "Wildschuetz Wildcats," after fighting tremendous odds for the past ten years, has finally brought girls basketball into the limelight. Patsy Shaw, woman Senator from Missouri, has introduced a bill into Congress that is intended to revolutionize completely the present systems of government. On their cattle ranch in Argentina, I caught Marion Turner and Robert Garrison with their robot cow hands in the middle of a round-up.

Looking into a modern school room, I discovered a class in Literature studying the poems of the distinguished "Dr. Longfellow" Scofield. Joan Williams, after many years of training, now holds the honored position of colonel in the WAF. In the finest dress shops on Fifth Avenue were to be seen the exclusive creations of Ann Morrison, world famous designer. (By the way, Ann also keeps up her duties as a housewife. Mildred Ruckdeschell and Josephine Canfield are co-owners of a famous pleasure resort in the Sahara Desert. Wayne Webb, after playing basketball on many professional teams has now retired and is manager of the "Globe Trotters." Looking for a sure winner in the races? Just ask Bill Williams. He owns the fastest horses in the country and they win every race -- or at least, most of them. June Davis, after a brilliant career in politics (and incidentally an honest one) has advanced to the honored position of being the first woman judge in the Supreme Court, which goes to prove that women, too, have brains, although it's contrary to popular opinion.

Rosalene Oskins, Star reporter for the "Solar Times," had just returned from the most important assignment of her career. Earth's ambassador to Mars, Billy Lindquist, was just entering a rocket ship bound for that planet, where he is to attend a very important conference. As for me, my name is Patty Thomas, and having spent part of my high school days living in a third floor apartment, I decided I might as well be higher in the clouds; so I came to Jupiter, where I have lived since. It is here on this planet that I relate this account of my friends on Earth.

class history

The Senior class of 1952 began the Freshman year in 1948 with an enrollment of 29. Our sponsor was Mrs. Marion Wyatt. Joan Allison dropped after the first quarter and moved to Mayview. Emmett and Lynette Hazzard also moved the second semester. Jackie Evans moved to Brookfield and Elda Mae Haile to Odessa at the end of the year.

Our Sophomore year began with 30 members enrolled. This year our sponsor was Mr. Garrett O'Dell. Gwendolyn McKinney, Harvey Robinson, and Mary Frances Sudduth were with us this year. Gwendolyn moved to Lee's Summit the second semester and Shirely Joan Adams dropped. At the end of the year we lost Mary Frances Sudduth, Harvey Robinson, and Elsie Carpenter.

Beginning our Junior year, we had 26 members enrolled. At the beginning of the year Don Adams from William Chrisman joined us and Connie Larrison dropped during the second semester. We gave our class play, "Little Jimmie Jones," on Feb. 6, directed by Miss Moore. On May 11 the Juniors gave the annual banquet and prom in honor of the Seniors.

We began our Senior year with the same number enrolled as were enrolled the Junior year. Norma Munden did not return. Gerald Burns from Glendale, Arizona, and Joan Williams joined the class this year. Twenty-three of our members have been together four years (throughout our high school days). Miss Mary Moore is our class sponsor this year.

During our four years of high school, we have had the following teachers: Mr. H. F. Cline, Miss Mary Moore, Mrs. Gertrude Wyatt, Mr. Garret O'Dell, Mrs. Hannah Belle Peck, Mr. Samuel Birk, Mrs. Raymond Scott, Mrs. Ethel D. Felts, Mr. Howard M. Vaughan, Mr. Joe Wolf, Miss Betty Kinney, and Mr. Jack Vrentas.

class will

We, the Seniors of Oak Grove High School being about to pass beyond this institution of higher learning, and still possessing our right minds, (we think), do bequeath our best-known traits and possessions to those of the underclassmen we deem fit to receive them.

Ann Morrison leaves her slim figure to Lillian Jones, and her long hair to Arthur Wilkinson. To Norma Simmons, Marion Turner wills his graceful walk, and his place on the basketball team to John Odom. Josephine Canfield and Mildred Ruckdeschell will their ability to giggle in study hall to Jimmy Cummins. Buddy Douglas wills his physique to Gene Scofield, and his "out-of-town gals" to Orville Clark. Gerald Burns leaves his unfinished projects in his backyard to Curtis Day, and his place in harmony and theory class to anyone who understands music. Rosalene Oskins wills her ability to read True Romance Magazines in glee club to Wilma Heath. To Steve Romanchuk, Patty Thomas leaves her place in the Pep Squad, and her "moth-eaten" basketball suit to Linda Johnson. Billy Williams wills his BLACK hair to Curtis Bundy, and his shy disposition to Mary Ellen Barker. Billy Lindquist would like to leave his car to Glenn Williams, but decides he had better keep it; instead he leaves Glenn his place on the football team. Gene Perry wills his position in football, (waterboy), to Don Keck, and chubby structure to Allen Morgan. Dicky Larson leaves his place as Senior class president to David Heath, and his place on the basketball team to Ronnie Reagin. To Lawrence Dennis, Robert Garrison wills his "Chevy" with the understanding he has to keep it clean. Joan Williams leaves her seat in Study Hall (first row, front seat) to anyone who has a desire to throw paper-wads, and her red?? hair to Gwyn Wilkinson. To Sylvia Phillips, Reitha Smith wills her ability to "catch and hold" a man. Patsy Shaw leaves her place in the sextette to Sharon Hutchings and her ability to go steady to Nancy Baker. Charles Gauldin wills his ability to get along with the teachers to his little brother, Donald, and his good-nature to Donna Smith. Wanda Wildschuetz leaves her "beat-up" basketball shoes to Donna Warren (if they fit), and her basketball suit to Henry Allen. Don Adams wills his ability to play the French harp to Roy Gene Turner, and his way with the girls to Ernest Barber. June Davis leaves her freckles to Joan Adams and her ability to concentrate to Dorothy Booker. Don Scofield leaves his bicycle to Bobby Bailey, and his ability to write poetry to Dick Alexander. Gary Costin wills his ability to "turn a corner on two wheels" to Arlie Cummins. Wayne Webb leaves his place on the basketball team to Nijah Heath, and two feet of his height to Lola Mansell. J. W. Day leaves his wavy hair to Seryl Webb. To Bill Dean, Eddie Morrow leaves his place in the candy room, and his good grades to Dale Johnson. Dwight Heath leaves his courteous manners to Virgil Munden, and his place in the boys quartet to Donnie Shaw.

To the teachers we leave the blessed relief of not having to endure our presence any longer and our thanks to them for the knowledge they have helped us to gain.

To the underclassmen of said high school we leave our places in school activities. We wish you success and as much fun in high school as we have had.

Several track meets are on the calendar during the closing days of the school year. We have attended an In-door meet at Kemper Military School at Boonville and one at the University of Missouri at Columbia. We have ahead of us the meet at Wm. Jewell College, the District meet at Warrensburg, and the State meet at Columbia. We won a dual-meet from Blue Springs on March 28.

The Freshman Class has a promising track team in the making.

One-act Plays

The Dramatics Class produced three one-act plays, which were presented to an Oak Grove audience on Monday evening, March 17. The plays and players were, as follows:

RED CARNATIONS, in which appeared Donna Warren, Charles Nebgen, and Seryl Webb.

THE FIRST DRESS SUIT, in which we saw Jackie Ewing, Mary Belle Sears, Don Adams, and Bill Dean.

SKY-FODDER, with the following cast: David Heath, Dwight Heath, and Curtis Day.

Since we could not give all these plays at the W. M. C. Festival at Lone Jack on March 20, an elimination contest was held on March 17. Sky-Fodder was chosen by the Judge to be used as our entry at Lone Jack. In the conference Festival we received a No. 1 rating.
